EDUCATION SUNDAY

In his letter for Education Sunday, Bishop McMahon says,

“Our schools are a very significant way in which the Catholic community in England and Wales places itself at the service of society.

“We are mindful that our educational institutions, many of which are among the very best in the country, depend on us for their success and their faithfulness to the evangelical commission to make disciples of all people. They depend first of all upon the support and cooperation of Catholic parents, who are the first teachers of their children.

They depend on local parishes in whose mission and witness they share, and they depend on a great number of committed staff who reflect in their own lives the joy that knowing Christ brings.

Please pray for all who are involved in Catholic Education and be as generous as you possibly can to today’s second collection, which will go to aid and support the work of The Catholic Education Service in England and Wales.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

Can you spare any of your extra time to help Zoe's Place Baby Hospice? As an evolving organization we need to recruit new volunteers to grow our invaluable volunteer network.

There is no such thing as a 'typical volunteer', we welcome people from all walks of life, and benefit greatly from drawing on their skills and life experiences and whether it be a few hours a week or an hour a day, there is always a role we can find you. You might be able to help by assisting us to fundraise or by helping to redecorate our Centre. Without the help of our volunteers, we simply would not be able to continue our remarkable work here at Zoe's Place Baby Hospice, which enables us to provide 24 hour palliative and respite care for infants aged 0-5 with life limiting or life threatening conditions.

So why not make good use of your skills and get involved in your local community.

DIVINE MERCY

Taken from Saint Faustina's Diary

Today, during Mass, I saw the Lord Jesus in the midst of His sufferings, as though dying on the cross. He said to me, My daughter, meditate frequently on the sufferings which I have undergone for your sake, and then nothing of what you suffer for Me will seem great to you.
You please Me most when you meditate on My Sorrowful Passion. Join your little sufferings to My Sorrowful Passion, so that they may have infinite value before My Majesty.

DIVINE MERCY DEVOTIONS

These will be recited for about 15 mins before the 6:00pm Mass Next Saturday.
