DIVINE MERCY

Taken from Saint Faustina's Diary

January, 1938.

I never cringe before anyone. I can't bear flattery, for humility is nothing but the truth. There is no cringing in true humility. Although I consider myself the least in the whole convent, on the other hand, I enjoy the honour of being the bride of Christ. Little matter that I often hear people say that I am proud, for I know that human judgment does not discern the motives for our actions.

When, at the beginning of my religious life, following the novitiate, I began to exercise myself particularly in humility, the humiliations that God sent me were not enough for me. And so, in my excessive zeal, I looked for more of them on my own, and I often represented myself to my superiors other than I was in reality and spoke of miseries of which I had no notion. But a short time later, Jesus gave me to know that humility is only the truth. From that time on, I changed my ideas, faithfully following the light of Jesus. I learned that if a soul is with Jesus, He will not permit it to err.

DIVINE MERCY DEVOTIONS

These will be recited for about 15 mins before the 6:00pm Mass Next Saturday.
