DIVINE MERCY

Taken from Saint Faustina's Diary

Fill Me, Lord

Meditation:

Then I heard the following words spoken thus: I want you to be My spouse. Fear pierced my soul, but I calmly continued to reflect on what sort of an espousal this could be. However, each time fear would invade my soul, a power from on high would give it peace (Diary, 912).

The Lord said to me, I want to give Myself to souls and to fill them with My love, but few there are who want to accept all the graces My love has intended for them. My grace is not lost; if the soul for whom it was intended does not accept it, another soul takes it (Diary, 1017).

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, You want to give Yourself to souls and fill them with Your love and mercy. But so many souls refuse Your love. Change my heart, Lord, to desire You alone. And fill me with Your love and mercy.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

Feasts and Memorials

5 OCTOBER

Saint Faustina Kowalska, Virgin

1905-1938. Born Helena Kowalska, she was a Polish mystic who in religious life took the name Sr Maria Faustina of the Blessed Sacrament. Her lifelong visions of the Lord and the conversations with him she faithfully recorded inspired the devotion to the Divine Mercy. She died in Krakow at the age of 33 and was canonised by Pope John Paul II in 2000, who established that the octave day of Easter, Low Sunday, would henceforth be retitled for Divine Mercy.

6 OCTOBER

Saint Bruno, Priest

c1030-1101. Bruno of Cologne was educated at Paris, and after priestly ordination he taught theology at Reims for twenty years. Desiring to lead the solitary life of a hermit rather than be made a bishop, in 1084 with six companions he founded the monastery of La Grande Chartreuse, near Grenoble, which became the mother house of the Carthusian Order. He was called to Rome by his former pupil Pope Urban II, to be his adviser and helper in the needs of the Church. He died at a charterhouse he had established in Calabria.

7 OCTOBER

Our Lady of the Rosary

Originally known as Our Lady of Victory, this feast was instituted by Pope Pius V on the anniversary of the naval battle at Lepanto (1571). It was said that the Christians were victorious in battle because of the help of the holy Mother of God, invoked by the saying of the rosary. Today's celebration urges the faithful to meditate on the mysteries of Christ, following the example of the Blessed Virgin Mary who was in a special manner associated with the incarnation, passion and glorious resurrection of the Son of God.

9 OCTOBER

Saint John Henry Newman,

Priest and Doctor of the Church 1801-1890. Born in London, he was for over twenty years an Anglican clergyman and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. His studies of the early Church led him progressively towards Catholicism, and with the aid of Bl Dominic Barberi in 1845 he embraced 'the one true fold of the Redeemer'. In 1847 he was ordained priest and went on to found the Oratory of St Philip Neri in England. A prolific writer and a celebrated orator, he has greatly influenced modern Catholic thought. In 1879 he was created cardinal by Pope Leo XIII. Praised for his humility, unstinting care of souls and contributions to the intellectual life of the Church, Cardinal Newman died at Birmingham. He was beatified there by Pope Benedict XVI in 2010 and canonised by Pope Francis in 2019.

10 OCTOBER

Saint Paulinus of York, Bishop

C6-7. Paulinus was a monk at Rome, sent as a missionary to England by Pope Gregory in 601. After working for twenty years in Kent, he was ordained bishop and sent to Northumbria as chaplain to the Christian princess Ethelburga who was to marry the pagan King Edwin. By 627, he was able to baptise the king and many of his nobles, including St Hilda of Whitby. Pope Honorius I sent Paulinus a pallium to make him Archbishop of York, but he had already returned to Kent following a pagan invasion of Northumbria and so he served instead as Bishop of Rochester until his death in 644.

Saint Denis, Bishop, and Companions, Martyrs

C3. It is recounted by St Gregory of Tours that Denis travelled from Rome to Gaul in the middle of the third century, that he became the first Bishop of Paris (at that time called Lutetia), and that he died as the French protomartyr, with two members of his clergy, at some time between 250-258. Legend holds that he was decapitated at Montmartre but continued walking, carrying his severed head and preaching, before burial on the site of the abbey of Saint-Denis, which later became the royal necropolis of France.

Saint John Leonardo Priest

1541-1609. Born at Lucca in Tuscany, he began as a pharmacist but soon felt a call to priesthood. He undertook the work of teaching Christian doctrine to children and with friends worked in hospitals and prisons. In 1574, he established the Order of Clerks Regular of the Mother of God to deepen and spread Christian faith and devotion. He is considered the founder of the institute which, extended by the popes, is called the Work of the Propagation of the Faith. He died at Rome during an epidemic while ministering to the sick.

Parish Development Strategy:

Next weekend all the parishes in the Knowsley Deanery will launch the Parish Development Strategy (PDS). This is being rolled out across all the deaneries of the Diocese.

Knowsley Deanery is the 7th Deanery to be involved – next month St Helens Deanery also begins.

The PDS will help us shape the future church in our part of the country. We will explore the vision that drives us – the dreams we have – and then make proposals as to how we can make this happen. The voices of all of us matter in this. We are guided by the Pastoral Plan and the realities of the present time., remembering always that it is God's Church and we are tasked with handing on a vibrant, healthy and sustainable church to those who will come after us.

A leaflet explaining what will happen will be made available next weekend.
