DIVINE MERCY

Taken from Saint Faustina's Diary

Part One of Conference

Meditation:

Conference on Mercy.

My daughter, know that My Heart is mercy itself. From this sea of mercy, graces flow out upon the whole world.

No soul that has approached Me has ever gone away unconsolated. All misery gets buried in the depths of My mercy, and every saving and sanctifying grace flows from this fountain (Diary, 1777).

My Prayer Response:

Thank You, Jesus, for this five-star teaching on Your mercy! Thank You for Your Heart, which is mercy itself, a sea of mercy, a fountain of mercy from which flows every saving and sanctifying grace!

May I and all who approach You be immersed in the sea of Your mercy.

Feasts and Memorials

26 SEPTEMBER

Saints Cosmas and Damian, Martyrs

C3-4. From early writings, there is evidence that the tomb of Cosmas and Damian was at Cyrrhus in Syria where a basilica was built in their honour. Their veneration spread from there to Rome and then throughout the Church - they are included in the Roman Canon - as two Arabian-born brothers who practised medicine and the ministry of healing until they were martyred under Diocletian. They offered their treatment freely, never accepting payment but attributing their cures to the grace of the Lord, and this generosity drew many to the faith. Their care for the sick made them the patrons of pharmacists and physicians.

27 SEPTEMBER

Saint Vincent de Paul, Priest

1581-1660. Born the third child of six at Gascony in France, after early ordination in 1600 Vincent completed his studies and became a parish priest in Paris. There he founded the Congregation of the Mission (Vincentians or Lazarists) for the purpose of the spiritual formation of the clergy and the relief of poverty, and with the help of Saint Louise de Marillac he also founded the Congregation of the Sisters of Charity. Renowned for his compassion, humility and generous care of the poor, as exemplified by the international society named after him, Vincent died and is buried at Paris.

28 SEPTEMBER

Saint Wenceslaus, Martyr

C907-935. Born in Bohemia, Prince Vaclav the Good was brought up in the Christian faith by his grandmother and took over power in the kingdom about the year 925. He encountered many difficulties both in ruling his kingdom and in promoting the Christian faith. He was betrayed by his brother Boleslaus and was murdered in the year 935. Immediately proclaimed a martyr, St Wenceslaus is venerated as the principal patron Bohemia. He is buried in St Vitus' Cathedral which he had established as a chapel in Prague Castle.

29 SEPTEMBER

Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, Archangels

The feast of the three archangels named in Scripture is traditionally celebrated as 'Michaelmas'. In God's plan, these messengers provided humanity with divine guidance, healing and defence against evil, and may be invoked for support in our own spiritual journey. The archangels are the essence of fidelity to contemplating God and carrying out his will.

30 SEPTEMBER

Saint Jerome, Priest and Doctor of the Church

C345-420. Born at Stridon in Dalmatia, Jerome was baptised after studying at Rome. Having adopted a life of asceticism, he went to the East, where he was ordained a priest. Returning to Rome, he became secretary to Pope Damasus and was outspoken in defence of the Church. There he began the task of translating the Bible into Latin, a Work that became known as the Vulgate. The second half of his life was spent in a cave in Bethlehem, where he wrote extensively, especially scriptural commentaries, maintaining that 'Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ.' He died at Bethlehem and was eventually reburied near the relics of the manger at St Mary Major in Rome.

1 OCTOBER

Saint Therese of the Child Jesus, Virgin and Doctor of the Church

1873-1897. As a teenager from Alençon in France, she entered the Carmelite monastery at Lisieux, where she excelled in the virtues of humility, evangelical simplicity and a firm confidence in God. She taught the novices by her words and the practical example of her 'little way' of trust and love. Offering up her sufferings for the salvation of souls and for the spreading of the faith in the missions, she died of tuberculosis at the age of 24.

2 OCTOBER

The Holy Guardian Angels

This memorial highlights God's loving protection for every individual by the divine Providence of unseen spiritual messengers who help in the avoidance of sin and temptation, guiding the soul towards God. Angels appear throughout Scripture as intermediaries between God and man, a lifelong connection between the human and spiritual realms, serving as personal guardians and an inspiration to make right choices

NINE FIRST FRIDAYS DEVOTIONS

Next Friday, 2nd October 2026,
St. Aloysius Church will be having the One hundred and Seventy-First of the First Friday's in honour of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. These devotions are to beg God's infinite mercy for our world and for our Church.

*The "Great promise" associated with this devotion applied to those who went to Communion on nine consecutive First Fridays:
"I promise you, in the excess of the mercy of My Heart, that Its all-powerful love will grant to all those who shall receive Communion on the first Friday of nine consecutive months the grace of final repentance; they shall not die under My displeasure nor without receiving the Sacraments,
My Divine Heart becoming their assured refuge at that last hour."*

On 2nd October, Mass at 7:30pm

All will be welcome to join us in begging the Lord for those graces promised through St. Margaret Mary to those who fulfil his directions by completing the Nine First Fridays devotion.

PROMISES

of Our Lord to Saint Margaret Mary in favour of those who are devoted to His Sacred Heart.

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state in life.
2. I will establish peace in their families
3. I will console them in all their difficulties.
4. I will be their secure refuge during life, and more especially at the hour of death.
5. I will shower down abundant blessings on all their undertakings.
6. Sinners shall find in My Heart a Source and bound less Ocean of Mercy.
7. Tepid souls shall become fervent.
8. Fervent souls shall rise speedily to great perfection.
9. I will bless the houses in which the picture of my Sacred Heart shall be exposed and honoured.
10. I will give to priests the power of touching the most hardened hearts.
11. Persons who propagate this devotion shall have their names written in My Heart, and they shall never be effaced there from.
12. I will grant the grace of final repentance to all those who shall communicate on the first Friday nine months consecutively. They shall not die in mortal sin, nor without

DEVOTION OF THE FIVE FIRST SATURDAYS

The following is an explanation of the conditions contained in Our Lady's request regarding the Communion of Reparation on the First Saturdays of the Month.

1. Confess and receive Holy Communion

On February 15, 1926 the Child Jesus alone came to visit Sr. Lucia and asked if the devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary was being propagated. Sr. Lucia spoke of a difficulty some people have in confessing on the first Saturday, and asked if they might be allowed eight days in order to fulfil Our Lady's requests. Jesus answered: "Yes, even more time still, as long as they receive Me in the state of grace and have the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary."

2. Recite the Rosary

Five decades of the Rosary may be recited at any time or place; yet, since one will be attending Mass in order to receive Holy Communion, a very desirable time and place would be before or after Mass in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Meditation on the mysteries according to one's capacity is an essential condition for praying the Rosary. Yet, involuntary distractions do not rob the Rosary of fruit if one is doing the best he can.

3. "Keep me company for fifteen minutes while meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary."

The question is often asked: Does the meditation while reciting the Rosary fulfil this condition, or is there required an additional fifteen minutes of meditation? That an additional 15 minutes of meditation is required was confirmed by Sr. Lucia of Fatima. It is clear too from a statement by the first Bishop of Fatima.

The last entry in the chronology of Fatima, published in the official Calendar of the Sanctuary for the year of 1940, and signed by Dom Jose Correia da Silva, the first Bishop of Fatima, gave a summary of Our Lady's requests concerning the Five First Saturdays.

From that official statement in the Calendar of the Sanctuary, we read the Bishop's enumeration of the various items that pertain to the devotion of the five Saturdays:

It consists in going to Confession, receiving Communion, reciting five decades of the Rosary and meditating for a quarter of an hour on the mysteries of the Rosary on the first Saturday of five consecutive months. The Confession may be made during the eight days preceding or following the first Saturday of each month, provided that Holy Communion be received in the state of grace. Should one forget to form the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, it may be formed at the next Confession, occasion to go to confession being taken at the first opportunity.

The meditation embraces one or more mysteries; it may even include all, taken together or separately, according to individual attraction or devotion; but it is preferable to meditate on one mystery each month.

Speaking of the requirement of "keeping me company for fifteen minutes while meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary," the Bishop's comment that "it is preferable to meditate on one mystery each month" could apply only to an extra fifteen minutes, for each decade of the Rosary must have its own particular meditation. This is clear from the definition of the Rosary given in the official document of the Church on indulgences, the ENCHIRIDION OF INDULGENCES published by Pope Paul VI in 1968. It describes the Rosary as follows:

"The Rosary is a certain formula of prayer, which is made up of fifteen decades of HAIL MARYS with an OUR FATHER before each decade, and in which the recitation of each decade is accompanied by pious meditation on a particular mystery of our Redemption." (n. 48)

Like the Rosary, this meditation may be made any time or place during the first Saturday. Yet again, like the Rosary, a very fitting time and place would be in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament before or after Mass. The question has been asked: "Would an extra Rosary, which would require about fifteen minutes, fulfil this request? It would seem, if fruitfully meditated, that it would. Or again, the time could be spent reading meditatively on one of the fifteen mysteries, which is a form of mental prayer that involves reading with frequent pauses to reflect on the matter read.

4. With the intention of making reparation.

All of the conditions mentioned above - in numbers 1 to 3 - should be fulfilled with the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. On the occasion of the visit of the Child Jesus to Sr. Lucia (Feb. 16, 1926), she asked: "My Jesus, what about those who forget to make the intention?" Jesus answered: "They can do so at their next confession, taking advantage of their first opportunity to go to Confession."

The above are the minimum requirements for fulfilling the conditions of Our Lady's promise to obtain for us "at the hour of death the graces necessary for salvation." Yet, these Communions of reparation, as has been pointed out, are only a portion of the devotion of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. These few pages are meant to help bring about a frame of mind and heart that will make us aware of the need of reparation all through the month, and not just on the first Saturday.

WHY FIVE SATURDAYS?

It is sometimes asked why Our Lady asked for Communions of reparation on five first Saturdays, instead of some other number. Our Blessed Lord answered that question when He appeared to Sr. Lucia May 29, 1930. He explained that it was because of five kinds of offenses and blasphemies against the Immaculate Heart of Mary, namely: blasphemies against her Immaculate Conception, against her perpetual virginity, against the divine and spiritual maternity of Mary, blasphemies involving the rejection and dishonouring of her images, and the neglect of implanting in the hearts of children a knowledge and love of this Immaculate Mother.
